What makes a FOURFIELDS Artist?

Can critically review and analyse their own and others artwork suggesting where improvements could be made.

Can appreciate, discuss and analyse the work of different artist, architects and craftspeople.

Is resilient

Is able to use a range of media effectively.

Is experimental and uses a range of creative techniques.

Knows and is able to use the technical vocabulary associated with art and various art techniques.

Has a passion and enthusiasm for the Arts.

Is able to apply taught skills in their own artwork.

Is able to make links between art movements and the associated artworks.