WHAT MAKES A FOURFIELDS DIGITAL LEADER?

Willingness to challenge themselves to use new technology.

Understand how to keep safe when accessing technology.

Able to make links between different areas of digital literacy.

Develop programming skills as I progress through the schools

Is experimental and uses a range of creative techniques.

Can use problem solving skills and previous learning to solve challenges when using technology.

Confident in using a wide range of technology.

Can identify how technology helps shape our world.

Can use computing knowledge in other areas of the curriculum.